THE SALE TO BE HELD ON

Wednesday, November 20, 1912

at the Assembly Rooms of the Board of Trade

COLUMBUS, OHIO

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE

Ohio State Numismatic Society

These lots will all be sold to the highest bidder without reserve. The abbreviations used are general to the trade. Make bids in every instance at so much per lot and not so much per piece. Those sending bids by mail will please give reference. If members of A. N. A. so state and no other reference required. Send in your bids promptly to William A. Ashbrook, Secy., O. S. N. S., Johnstown, O. Write your bids plainly. All lots guaranteed correctly catalogued. No commission charged for executing bids. This is not a dealers sale. Postage and registry to be paid by the buyer in every instance. Remittances may be made in manner most convenient to you.

Examine catalogue and before you send your bids be sure you have made no mistake. The highest bidder is the best bidder always. This is an honest sale, and you may depend upon honest treatment in executing your bids.

All Coins on exhibit at 9 a. m., Nov. 20, 1912. Sale to begin at 10:30 a. m. and to continue until all lots are sold.

Make out your bids today and mail to
